VISION ZERO Coalition Honors the Memory of Wilbert Williams
Community Calls on Caltrans to Fix Deadly Freeway Off-Ramps to Prevent Future Tragedies

WHAT: On Monday, June 15, 2015, the one-year anniversary of Mr. Wilbert Williams's death, family members will stand with the Vision Zero Coalition, Supervisor Jane Kim, and the District Attorney's office to honor Wilbert - and the many others who lost their lives to traffic violence - at the same park where Wilbert's life was cut short.

Family members who have lost loved ones in traffic crashes and the Vision Zero Coalition will call on Caltrans to follow the City's example and change the roads, which they control, to fix the dangerous conditions responsible for Mr. Williams' tragic death.

WHO: Family members who have lost loved ones in traffic crashes
Members of the Vision Zero Coalition
District 6 Supervisor, Jane Kim
SF County Transportation Authority, Deputy Director for Planning, David Uniman
Office of the San Francisco District Attorney
Walk San Francisco, Executive Director, Nicole Ferrara
San Francisco Bicycle Coalition, Executive Director, Noah Budnick

WHEN: Monday, June 15, 2015 at 5:30 PM

WHERE: Plaza at 400 5th Street, between Harrison and Bryant
Where Mr. Williams was killed one year ago today

VISUALS: A memorial with photos, flowers and tokens of remembrance of lost loves ones.

Walk SF and the Vision Zero Coalition’s thoughts are with the families and friends of Mr. Williams and all the community members who are mourning the loved ones they’ve lost to preventable traffic deaths.

###
Vision Zero – Zero traffic deaths and serious injuries in 10 years. No loss of life on city roadways is acceptable, when serious and fatal traffic collisions can be prevented. By engineering inherently safer streets, enforcing traffic laws more effectively, and targeting traffic-safety education, cities that adopt Vision Zero policies can eliminate ALL serious and fatal traffic-related injuries, including motorist, bicyclist, and pedestrian collisions.